Cornell Note-taking System cont'd

How do I make my notes more useful? cont'd	-After class, refine notes cont'd
	·Write Qs in L
	·read underlined words & write recall cues in L
*fill L of pg	~Key words & very brief phrases *fill B of pg	to trigger ideas/facts on R
*share	~in addition to Qs ·At bottom, write summary
	·compare notes
	↳ if writing notes on comp, should print to study
What are the best ways to use your notes to prepare for a tutorial, test, etc.?	-Cover R of pg
	·read Q, recite info from memory (fully as possible), uncover notes/verify info frqntly ~ single most powerful learning tool
	-Reflect on organztn of lectures & study progression of info
*R, R, V	·Compare notes & recall cues
*reflection	~prompts categories, relationships, inferences, personal opinions/experiences ·record insights
	~reflection = key to memory
	-Review by reciting, reflecting, & reading insights